Additional program funding can be obtained from above mentioned or other public funding bodies.

Cooperations and community partnerships

AMRO is produced through several cooperations - involving monetary contributions, material support, in kinds, or various arrangements that have been developed through the years See: <https://radical-openness.org/en/partners-2026> Co-organisation partner is University of Arts Linz - through the departments of Time-based Media and Visual Communication. Through this partnership we finance part of the festival program and production, as well as get a lot of support through university staff. We also involve students in festival content and production - knowing that AMRO is a good frame where to exchange and learn together.

Other institutions we partner are Piet Zwart Institute and XPUB (Rotterdam, Netherlands)

Independent initiative we cooperate are part of servus' local network of partners and members. afo - architekturforum oberösterreich is since several editions main venue of the festival. Stadtwerkstatt. Radio FRO - Freies Rundfunk Oberösterreich. bb15 - space for contemporary art. Galerie MAERZ. DH5. dorfTV. /dev/lol. Raumschiff. willy*fred. Theater Phönix. Die Versorgerin / Die Referentin

Travel

Our budget allows us to generally fund travel within Europe. We want to avoid flying and support more sustainable forms of travel – like train, bike or boat. Please keep this in mind when applying and planning your trip to Linz.

If you are able to finance your travel and/or accommodation yourself or through a third party (university, scholarship, etc.), we will be happy to provide you with an invitation letter.

Hosting policy

We organize accommodation in simple hotels, but also through community hosting, which allows participant also to interact and get to know nice people around Linz.

Please let us know if you are interested in private hosting.

If you are based in Linz, please let us know if you have a spare room that you want to offer to other AMRO participants.

General accessibility

We will collect participant needs and provide support in terms of access. Festival locations are generally accessible also via wheelchair.

Interpretation in International or Austrian Sign Language can be provided.

AMRO programme is generally held in English. Spontaneous translations and summaries of the rest of the festival programme can be provided.
