MOBILITY

Linz is a tiny city and most of the locations are in a walkable distance (15/20 min max)

public mobility (bus & tram)

From the train station of Linz there is a Tram-line that brings you to the main square. Tram lines are 1, 2, 3, and 4 - taken in the right direction will all bring you to the main square - "Hauptplatz" - and a one way ticket costs around 3.00 Euro.

you can check the busses and trams here: <https://services.linzag.at/efa/#> or use the OEBB Scotty App <https://www.oebb.at/en/fahrplan/fahrplanauskunft/scottymobil> or the OEBB website: https://fahrplan.oebb.at/webapp/?language=en_GB (works also for bus stops, but you have to put the full name)

Check how many stops, under 4 you can get the mini-ticket for 1.50 Euro

There are Ticket Vending Machines in every Tram/Bus stop accepting cash or card payments.

currently working on festival pass also as transportation ticket, more info soon.

Bike rental

You can try to use the city-bikes, you need to register, every day first 30 minutes are for free, then 1 euro per 15 minutes. \\ make sure you return the bike to the parking lots (if full you can leave it close-by)
